SEATTLE – Moneytree was named as a finalist in the 2008 Colorado Best Companies to Work for contest. The contest honors companies in Colorado that show a dedication to their employees' growth and quality of life. This is the first time Seattle-based, family-owned Moneytree has been a finalist on the annual Colorado list. Winners will be announced at an awards ceremony at the Denver Center for the Performing Arts on July 31.

The Best Companies to Work for in Colorado awards program is open to all for-profit and non-profit organizations in the state, and ranks companies in two company size categories: Medium-Sized Companies (25-199 employees) and Large-Sized Companies (200 employees or more).

Assisted by ModernThink, LLC, the Best Companies Group conducted an assessment of participating companies. The two-part comprehensive survey required the employer to complete a questionnaire, and also gathered anonymous feedback from the employees of that company.

Aggie Clark, Moneytree President, stated, “As we look forward to our 25th anniversary, we are honored to be named as a finalist in the 2008 Colorado Best Companies to Work for contest.” Dennis Bassford, Moneytree CEO echoed Ms. Clark’s sentiments: “We are gratified by the recognition as it’s a direct reflection that our team members enjoy their jobs, feel valued and are committed to our communities.”
