SEATTLE – The San Diego Business Journal named Moneytree one of San Diego’s 50 Best Places to Work during their 10th annual awards event on May 20, 2009. Moneytree was ranked #8 on the Medium-Sized Companies list. This was the first time Moneytree was honored on the annual San Diego list.

The Best Companies to Work for in San Diego awards program is open to all for-profit and non-profit organizations in the state, and ranks companies in three company size categories: Small-Sized Companies (15 – 24 employees), Medium-Sized Companies (25-199 employees) and Large-Sized Companies (200 employees or more).

To compile this year’s list of the 50 Best Companies to Work For, the Best Companies Group conducted an assessment of participating companies. The two-part comprehensive survey required the employer to complete a questionnaire, and also gathered anonymous feedback from the employees of that company. Seventy-five percent of the results were based on employee feedback.

Aggie Clark, Moneytree President, stated, “We are honored to be named one of San Diego’s Best Places to Work.” Dennis Bassford, Moneytree CEO echoed Ms. Clark’s sentiments: “We are gratified by the recognition as it’s a direct reflection that our San Diego team members enjoy their jobs, feel valued and are committed to our communities.”
