SEATTLE – Moneytree announced today that they won 5th place in the San Diego Business Journal's "Healthiest Employers" awards program. Moneytree currently employs 85 team members in the San Diego area. Each employee enjoys a benefits package that includes generous vacation and sick-leave plans, as well as fully-paid medical, dental and vision insurance. The plan also covers dependents, spouses and domestic partners at a low cost. In fact, multiple dependents can be added to the Moneytree healthcare plan at no extra cost.

Happily this is just the tip of the iceberg, "We strive to improve the quality of life for our employees and their families and that includes the concept of total wellness," says President Aggie Clark. Between the health insurance benefits and the Employee Assistance Program (EAP), Moneytree offers a comprehensive plan that addresses wellness topics including weight loss, stress management, smoking cessation and nutrition.

Clark added, "Not only do we strive to provide excellent care for our employees, but we want them to be well versed about the coverage so they can make informed choices when using their benefits plans."

Moneytree has previously been recognized as one of San Diego's 50 "Best Places to Work." In 2008 and 2009 Moneytree was recognized as the Best Company to Work For in Washington State by the Seattle Business Magazine in the large company category.
